

Dear Karolina,

We would like to formally thank you for the hard work, dedication, and talent you demonstrated during the recent UEFA EURO 2024 Remote Translation Project.

The EURO was another major tournament project for Blue Whale Global Media, involving around 250 professionals and handling over 1000 individual translation jobs.

We sincerely hope you enjoyed the project as much as we did. Every team member was an invaluable part of our success, helping us maintain the quality and professionalism that our client, UEFA, expects.

Below, you will find a Letter of Recommendation from us, which you are welcome to use in job applications or on your LinkedIn page.

Thank you once again for your efforts over the past two months. We look forward to working with you on more translation projects, whether during the regular season or at another tournament!

Yours sincerely,

Michael Callaly, on behalf of Blue Whale Global Media:

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to personally recommend Karolina Łachmacka, who was a key member of the EURO 2024 Remote Translation Project that we managed on behalf of UEFA.

Karolina stood out for her exceptional skills in translation, transcription, and proofreading. Her command of English, extensive football knowledge, and swift delivery were impressive. Additionally, she is a team player who fully embraced the spirit of cooperation and collective effort that this project demanded.

We have stringent requirements for candidates to work under pressure and adapt to our innovative workflows and technology. I am pleased to confirm that Karolina excels in these areas. I wholeheartedly recommend her for any future position.

Yours faithfully,

Michael Callaly
